IT'S PROVOKING---

To me, but gratifying to others, I guess, to have someone say, "Cunningham's Funerals are so expensive." They are NO more so, than those conducted by other funeral directors.

My impressive service, with its wealth of attention to details and dignity is the same to ALL. YOU merely select a caset, at a price governed by YOUR financial limitations.

There is NO CHARGE for the use of the Chapel, the most elaborate in America, or the service of an organist.

The real measure of damage due to poor telephone service is in loss of time or in the personal inconvenience caused.

Speed is a relative term that depends upon what one is used to rather than upon what one actually requires or that one may have been led to expect.

In telephone practice high speed is taken for granted; if telephone calls had never been answered by the operator in less than thirty or forty seconds, it would still be not only the quickest service in the world but it would seem the quickest. Moreover, the time consumed would be less than that required to complete any other operation in the business or domestic routine.

The remarkably fast service the telephone companies have created and maintained so steadily has made fifteen and twenty seconds seem a long time—but only as regards telephone service.

The South Park Board actually realizes that this part of their district is entitled to some consideration, and through Mr. Waechter, the father of the "City Beautiful" movement, has virtually promised us a park and boulevard. There is nothing to be gained by keeping quiescent with such bodies, the way to get our deserts is to go after the top notch fellows and holler until they hear us. It is time some of the funds should be spent where they are paid. Dr. Brinkerhoff deserves great credit for the fight he has been making for the park.

Home buyers—If you are contemplating buying a home in spring make your selection early, as the demand will exceed the supply ten to one. Look at the following six room brick bungalows ready April 1st. Terms. 1824 W. Marquette rd., price $7,950; 8801-03-05 S. Carpenter St., price $6,950 up; 8512-18-24 Manistee ave., price $5,950 up; also one and one-half story frame residences at 8517-19-23-25 and 27 Marquette ave., price $4,150, terms to suit. The Corporation owns and operates sixteen fully equipped sugar mills with a present working capacity of about 5,000,000 bags (320 lbs.) of raw sugar. The output for 1918-1919 was 4,319,189 bags and the estimated output for 1919-1920 is 4,700,000 bags.
The Corporation has no bonded indebtedness other than these Debenture Bonds. It covenants not to create any mortgage upon its present real property or plants so long as any of the Debenture Bonds are outstanding.

NATIONAL THEATRE

"Jim's Girl" will positively be at the National Theatre Sunday matinee, Feb. 29th, the home of the National Theatre Co. of stock players, and with her will be, of course, Jim himself and the rest of the interesting characters.

"Jim's Girl" is drama pure and simple. The story is life as it is enacted every day somewhere, some place. It's pleasing because of its very simplicity, and holds and entertains one from the rise to the fall of the last curtain.

While Jim was in France, Hutchinson Butch, the Poo Bah of Rumoi, Ind., Jim's home town, took advantage of Jim's absence and put over a shady deal that puts Jim's mother in financial difficulties, and it develops on Jim to put these matters right and confound the villainous Butch, which he proceeds to do, and in which he gets considerable help from U. S. Marshal McKeon, who is at first suspected of coming to arrest Jim for obtaining illegal entrance into the United States of Yvonne. McKeon, however, turns out to be a different sort of a fellow entirely, and professes to be a great chap for the Bedford family and their friends.

The element of jealousy enters when Maria Fillings attempts to claim Jim as her own. Jim, however, loves only Yvonne, and Maria is finally made to see this, as well as Yvonne herself.

With the aid of Marshal McKeon, Jim finally gets Butch to give up the property he had taken from Jim's mother, and Jim, who is about to be apprehended by the authorities for alleged complicity in bringing Yvonne into the country for immoral purposes, marries Yvonne while the officials are making ready to arrest him, thus automatically thwarting the conspirators. Of course after the marriage all ends happily.

The comedy element is bountifully supplied by Eddie Fry, Jim's pal, and Windy Miller and Will Dibbs, a pair of old chaps who unanimously fail to agree with each other on anything. Altogether it's a really great play, one that you can't afford to miss.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

No theatre house in the city has a clearer reputation for good shows than the Marlowe. Besides having a regular program of unusual excellence, they are always in the front rank with special attractions and features of unusual merit. Under the efficient management of Harry Crawford, the Marlowe is the house of merit that attracts all members of the family. The mother and father, the big brother and the sister enjoy it as well as the kiddies do the special Saturday matinees when something especially choice is saved for the little ones who get nice, clean, wholesome amusement at nominal prices, hence the Marlowe is the family theatre.

The regular programs are. Every Monday night the local hat contest, at which a beautiful sky piece is awarded some lady, whose choice is left to the audience and the fortunate lady wears a beautiful hat home. On Tuesday nights come the local song contest as well as that of the professional song publishers' song revue. This is an added attraction also, as on both nights there are five or more professional vaudeville acts with feature pictures. On Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week in addition to the feature pictures and other attractions they have a delightful musical comedy, something really good and attractive, a bevy of beautiful songsters and dancers with some of the richest costuming and scenery mounts shown in the city. On Fridays they offer the professional vaudeville revue at which seven or more artists present their acts before an audience of managers who select their talent for the coming week's bookings. On Saturdays and Sundays, matinees both days, they always have at least six big vaudeville acts, feature pictures and specialties that make them the gala nights of the week. The Marlowe always has a good show and you will enjoy it and may bring your entire family to help you enjoy it.

E. A. R.

Few theatres in Chicago are so extraordinary fine music is a feature essentially neighborhood houses as is the pretty E. A. R. Theatre at 69th St. and Wentworth Ave. Manager "Johnny" Kempton, one of the cleverest booking agents in the big city, always sees that his house secures the cleanest and best pictures released. A glance at their displays in the Times or their reading notices will convince you of the up-to-date character of E. A. R. shows. The grand organ and appreciated by the discriminating public and as a consequence there is always a fine audience to witness every snow, matinee or night, at the homey E. A. R.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 27th and 28th, dainty and winsome Marguerite Clark in a sprightly love story, "All of a Sudden Peggy." A breezy romantic comedy, rippling with youth and the joy of life. She was all Irish—and all-of-a-sudden! One morning the papers, with her consent, announced she was married. But she wasn't! And what's more she refused to marry her "husband!" What was her game? Come and laugh while you find out. Added attraction, Joe Martin, monkey comedian, in "Over the Transome." Also International News and Pictograph.

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 29th and March 1st, 2 days, Charles Ray in "Red Hot Dollars." "So darn downright human." That's Charles Ray. So great an artist that he forgets he's acting. Just lives those wonderful boyish roles that "get" you, warm you, lift you, tug at your heart. Whether he's glad, sad or fighting mad, you're with him. Because he's sincere—because he's so darn downright human. Be with him again in "Red Hot Dollars." Added attraction for Sunday, Century Comedy and Screen Magazine. Added attraction for Monday, Mack Sennett latest comedy, "The Star Boarder."

TULANE THEATRE

Pictures will be given the proper musical setting by the Tulane Ladies' Trio Orchestra. These young ladies have just returned from a successful concert tour and there is a treat in store for lovers of good music.

Friday, Feb. 27th, 6.45 to 11 p. m. Double feature—Charlie Chaplin in his funniest 2-act comedy, a Chaplin classic; Louis Bennison in "The Misfit Earl." How a cowboy triumphs over the conventions of English nobility and wins a delightful girl as his wife is the theme of Louis Bennison's latest Betzwood-Goldwyn picture, "A Misfit Earl." Louis Bennison as a western cowboy does not relish eating alone in an English castle, so he leaves the dining hall and takes his meals with the servants. How they receive him and how he amuses both himself and them furnish many of the comedy moments in a typical Bennison picture.

Saturday, Feb. 28th, 2 to 11 p. m. Tom Mix in "The Speed Maniac." The most successful photoplay in which Tom Mix has appeared here. Against a background of a charming story of love and mystery, Tom Mix stages some new and powerful scenes that show not only the cleverness of that William Fox star as an actor and his long practised skill of muscle and nerve, but also a marvelous intuition with which he dares death yet most skilfully calculates his hairbreadth escapes. The big auto race in which Mix's car is wrecked, the rescue of a girl in a runaway taxicab, and a big boxing match at which a young girl appears disguised as a boy, furnish a few of the many thrills. For love, adventure and human appeal "put over" by the cleverest man in his line on the screen today, the inimitable Tom Mix in "The Speed Maniac" is a delight. Also 2-act Gale Henry comedy.

Sunday, Feb. 29th, 2 to 11 p. m. There are women who would barter their souls for luxuries and a good time. Is there one in your life? See Theda Bara in "The Lure of Ambition." "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." This old adage never was better exemplified than in "Lure of Ambition," the Theda Bara superproduction. Olga Dolan, who is impersonated on the screen by Miss Bara, finds that the man to whom she has given her love was only trifling with her affections. In her fury she determines to avenge the insult upon the entire breed of man. She is transformed from a trusting girl into an ambitious woman, thirsting for worldly success. She achieves success far beyond her first ambitious dreams. Theda Bara is seen in the principal role of this unusual and gripping production. Several local screen favorites are in the strong supporting cast. Also 2-act Sunshine comedy. Special music by the Tulane Ladies' Trio Orchestra. These young ladies give an artists' rendition of both popular and classical selections.

The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

They couldn't be built now for twice $71,000

When the talk turns from politics to railroads, and the traveler with the cocksure air breaks in with, "There's an awful lot of 'water' in the railroads," here are some hard-pan facts to give him:

American railroads have cost $80,900 a mile—roadbed, structures, stations, yards, terminals, freight and passenger trains—everything from the great city terminals to the last spike.

A good concrete-and-asphalt highway costs $36,000 a mile—just a bare road, not counting the cost of culverts, bridges, etc.

Our railroads couldn't be duplicated today for $150,000 a mile.

They are capitalized for only $71,000 a mile—much less than their actual value. Seventy-one thousand dollars today will buy one locomotive.

English railways are capitalized at $274,000 a mile; the French at $155,000; German $132,000; even in Canada (still in pioneer development) they are capitalized at $67,000 a mile. The average for all foreign countries is $100,000.

Low capitalization and high operating efficiency have enabled American Railroads to pay the highest wages while charging the lowest rates.

Mabel Clark, One of "The Mischief Makers," Next Week

"Mischief Makers" take the stage for the usual period. This aggregation of clever performers promise to give burlesque patrons one of the most joyous entertainments they will get this season. The management has been especially fortunate in engaging several performers who can deliver the goods in generous measure. There is Joe Freed, the popular eccentric comic, and Joe Wilton. Mr. Joe Freed is one of the best laugh makers on the stage and keeps the house in an uproar when he is in action. Mabel Clark and Bonnie Lloyd, playing soubrette roles for "The Mischief Makers," are a dainty type of liveliness, possessing a sweet voice and each a nimble pair of feet. Julia Morgan, the leading woman, is a handsome vampire who is an excellent foil for the comedians.

Among the other comedians are Sam Raynor and Johnny Crosby, character comedians, especially good roles, and are clever legitimate actors. The company also includes eighteen of the daintiest, liveliest chorus girls in burlesque, all under twenty. The latter make all the singing numbers very strong. These entertainers will be seen in a laughable musical travesty, built just for fun, called "Oo La La." The pieces have been carefully staged and the song numbers put on so that the chorus of twenty charming young women work with the greatest snap and ginger.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

Today, Friday, Feb. 27th, beautiful Anita Stewart in "The Juggernaut." It's Miss Stewart's supreme effort in an out-of-the-ordinary picture, which proves to her many movie admirers that she is meeting with their hearty approval, which, also, is the goal all stars strive to attain.

New Wonder Serial to Produced Like a Big Feature Picture

One of the greatest serials ever made will be seen at the Halsted Theatre, every Saturday, Matinee and night, first run in Englewood. Theatre next week, beginning Saturday, Feb. 21st, first run in Englewood. "Lightning Bryce" is the name of this serial, and there will be fifteen episodes. The story was laid in the West and it is said that there are a great many feature touches to this serial that are seldom seen in serials.

Ann Little and Jack Hoxie are the stars and they are called upon to do many daring and dangerous stunts. Paul Hurst, who directed "Lightning Bryce," also plays the part of Solvang, and is the villain in the serial. "Lightning Bryce" contains more thrilling stunts and daring deeds than others will star. Don't miss a single show. Watch these columns of the Times each week and keep posted. It will be well worth your while.

For the benefit of those who were unable to see the start we will repeat the first episode and also show the second one. Get started right and stick to the finish.

Monday, March 1st, Frank Keenan in "Brothers Divided." If all the crooks who should be behind bars were put there, we might miss a few prominent people from our midst; also if all the innocent men and women who are locked up were free the world might be more easily able to look itself in the face. Apropos of this story of Frank Keenan's in which an innocent man has been behind prison bars for twenty years, while his cruel, mean brother lives and incurs the enmity of the mill hands over whom he is "boss." When the innocent brother gets out through an act of heroism in a prison fire, his son, who knows nothing of his father's disgrace, is ashamed of him. But true nobility of character will out, and the father, son and the girl in the case are united finally for happiness. Frank Keenan enacts the dual role of the two brothers most effectively.

Wednesday, March 3rd, William Russell in "Shod With Fire," his latest and greatest picture. See it by all means.

The Vernon Theatre

When James Barry, the Englewood man, bought the Vernon, his many home friends knew he would give a good show and many have formed the habit of visiting his parlor play house. At first it was a matter of compliment to "Jim," but soon the excellence of the program and the comfortable house made it a habit and as a result the Vernon is drawing a very liberal patronage from Englewood and this vicinity. The bookings at the Vernon are among the very best, all the big features are secured and no passe or stale bills will be seen, and we take pleasure in commending the excellent house to our readers.

At the Vernon Theatre for the coming week: Friday, Feb. 27th, Bert Lytell in Sir Gilbert Parkers' master romance of Canadian life, "The Right of Way." How a woman saved a man who scorned the love she used to save him. Also Charles Chaplin in "The Vagabond" and latest News Events.

Saturday, Feb. 28th, Adolph Zukor presents Marguerite Clark in "All of a Sudden Peggy," at Paramount-Artcraft picture. Also latest 2-reel Mack Sennett comedy, "The Star Boarder." Matinee only, Pearl White in "The Black Secret," No. 11.

Also a good 2-part comedy and Screen Magazine.

Wednesday, March 3rd, Doris May and Douglas MacLean in another big comedy hit, "Mary's Ankle.

Woodlawn Theatre

The palatial and gorgeous Woodlawn, just on the the other side of Cottage Grove Ave., has a large Englewood patronage. It is so convenient that it almost becomes a "home house" and the excellence of their music, the programs of their symphony orchestra, and their excellent plays is adding to their clientele weekly. Englewood people all feel at home at the Woodlawn, and the rich elegance of the lobby and house has a warm welcoming feeling for one. The program for the coming week is as follows:

Mary Pickford as "The Glad Girl" in "Pollyana," released by the United Artists Corporation, will spread the sunshine of Eleanor H. Porter's philosophy at the Woodlawn Theatre for one solid week commencing Sunday (George Washington's Birthday), Feb. 22nd, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. This picture is said to be the best vehicle in which Miss Pickford has ever appeared. There is no better tonic for those who have been the victims of bad luck and who may as a result be downhearted or even resentful against fate, than this remarkable play. "Play the glad game all through life"—that is the theme of the story. This philosophy begun with the arrival at Pollyanna's humble home of a Christmas barrel which did not contain a single useful article. Pollyanna's father taught the little girl to apply the "Glad" philosophy to every circumstance that arose. As time went on she became the Prophet of Gladness, and with all the sincerity of childhood proselyted along the pathway of life, winning many converts to this new religion.

One of the outstanding motion picture productions of the year is the screen version of Augustus Thomas' brilliant play, "The Copperhead," which, with Lionel Barrymore in the leading role, opens a four days' run at the Woodlawn Theatre starting Sunday matinee, Feb. 29th. The fact that a whole village was constructed and twice reconstructed for the three main episodes of the story is an indication of the large scale upon which the picture has been produced. The success that has been thus attained in securing the real atmosphere of the period in which the action of "The Copperhead" takes place is striking. "The Copperhead" is in every respect a big picture, and the performance of Lionel Barrymore as the hero, Milt Shanks, is as effective and striking as his characterization of the misjudged patriot on the stage. The production is a Paramount-Artcraft and was directed by Charles Maigne, and we urge everyone to see it.

Coming, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 4th, 5th and 6th, three eventful days, the stupendous drama by Edgar Lewis, "Other Men's Shoes." He was a fighting parson—a two-fisted, red-blooded, soul saver—but with a deep feeling for humanity. He had been a tender, sensitive soul, meek and good. Now came the change which, besides winning for him the heart of the town—the hearts of its little children—it won for him the heart of his brother's sweetheart. How did it happen? See the picture for the answer.

Its punch is a thousand heart throbs! Its beauty smiles through tears!

As long as human emotion shall endure—such is the life of "The Copperhead," a dramatic entertainment as eternal as time itself. Such an entertainment as made audience after audience rise to its feet in cheers at the end of the stage play. And, without exaggeration, this picture drama contains the finest piece of acting ever seen on the screen!

It is the one great American picture of today.
Every child and grown-up person should see this play.

Always The Best — Better Than The Rest

LINDEN THEATRE

63rd Street at Halsted

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 27th and 28th, Bert Lytell in "The Right of Way," Sir Gilbert Parker's stirring romance of Canadian life. Saturday, Kinogram News and Mutt & Jeff.

Special three-day attraction, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 29th, March 1st and 2nd, Lionel Barrymore in "The Copperhead," the great American classic play of today. "The Copperhead" is a great picture. Borrowing the words of the industry the writer wishes it known that in this production at the Linden the silent drama is an offering to which it can point with pride as a shining example of its art. And the honors for the drama's effectiveness may be attributed to Lionel Barrymore's splendid portraiture of an American martyr and to the general elegance of the film, the handicraft of Charles Maigne. See this master production. It's a picture you will never forget.

Harvard

A feature of the Harvard theatre now is the par excellence of the music. Not only is the appropriate music of the screen played, but also artistic selections that are drawing many plaudits from the appreciative audience. Some of the solo work is especially worthy of mention and lovers of good music certainly enjoy the work of the symphony orchestra at this popular house.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 27th and 28th, matinee and night. The delightful and youthful stars, Doris May and Douglas MacLean, in another big comedy hit, "Mary's Ankle." Screamingly funny, tensely interesting, deliciously shocking, vastly entertaining. They have done it again! Filmed in nature's wonderland near beautiful Lake Tahoe. Taken from the dramatic story by Stephen Fox. A vital, stirring drama of love and vengeance, played against the most picturesque background in all America—the wonderful region of Lake Tahoe. Also Sunshine comedy, Fox News and matinee only, "The Great Radium Mystery."

Monday, March 1st, beautiful Elaine Hammerstein's second production, "Greater Than Fame," eclipses initial triumph. Elaine Hammerstein, though practically new to the screen, completely won the hearts of the American public in her first Selznick picture. In this, her second starring vehicle, Miss Hammerstein is more charming than ever.

Tuesday, March 2nd, Bessie Barriscale in "The Luck of Geraldine Laird." The story is of the remarkable race between a husband and wife from a small town to win fame in New York's great theatrical world is told in "The Luck of Geraldine Laird." Miss Barriscale is supported by Niles Welch, William Mong, Rosetta Marstini, and by Mary Jane Irving and Theo-Alice Carpenter, two interesting child actors.

Special for two days, Wednesday and Thursday, March 3rd and 4th, Lionel Barrymore in "The Copperhead." To his country and Lincoln he had secretly given his all. Had accepted a task that could not be explained. Even his wife believed him a traitor. Sneered at, hated, falsely convicted of murder, he uttered never a word. Only he and Lincoln knew how great a thing he had done. When Lionel Barrymore played "The Copperhead" on the stage, women and men alike wept like children—rose from their seats and cheered. Now the patrons of this theatre will see this same great drama—enacted by a cast of thousands—with Barrymore in the title role.

Friday and Saturday, March 5th and 6th, special attraction for two days, Richard Harding Davis' famous play, "Soldiers of Fortune." Richard Harding Davis' extravaganza of American heroism, "Soldiers of Fortune," has been elaborately staged by Allan Dawn and is calculated to evoke our admiration for Yankee stoicism almost as much as some of the Lincoln dramas that are rife just now.

Then last, but not least, let's not forget the special benefit performance Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, matinees and night, for the Scholarship Fund and the Parker Practice and High schools. The management has gone to unusual expense for this benefit and has chosen the programs very carefully with the thought that all parents may bring their children to view any or all of the pictures with confidence. Come, one and all, and help make this a grand success.

EMPRESS THEATRE

When anyone tells of something witty and sharp, or hums a pretty new song, the usual challenge is "Did you hear that at the Empress?" It is generally understood that the brightest and best in song or vaudeville acts will be seen there and there are no disappointments. In addition to the smart vaudeville, Manager Harry Mitchell books the very best first run of pictures and screen attractions that make a show in themselves.

Few houses have the facilities of securing the bookings of the top liners that the Empress gets. Manager Mitchell is known as a veteran show man, and most artists coming to Chicago want a date at the Empress, and the booking agents act accordingly, hence many of the best big circuit people who are seldom seen outside of the biggest "loop" houses are regular ones at the Empress. The splendid size of the house, its many seats and large seating capacity, enables them to play expensive attractions that a smaller house could not in safety attempt. Added to this is the reliable attendance which insures a good audience at every performance, matinee and evening and every seat is filled by the appreciative people who want to keep abreast of the times in things new, novel and entertaining. Special matinees for ladies who go to 63rd and Halsted on their shopping trips are offered and always some dainty bit of the program is for their benefit, that is why the Empress is the favorite with the ladies. Every show at the Empress is a good one, and you will spend a pleasant afternoon or evening any time you favor them with your presence.

The Newspaper Guy

I see a man pushing his way through the lines
Of cops where the work of the "firefiends" shines.
"The chief?" I inquire—but fireman replies:
"Gee, no. Why, that's one of those newspaper guys."
I see a man walk through the door of a show
Where great throngs are blocked by the signs "S. R. O."
"Is this man the star, that no ticket he buys?"
"Star nothin'. He's one of those newspaper guys."
I see a man start on the trail of a crook
And he scorns the police, but brings him to book.
"Sherlock Holmes?" I inquire—some one scornfully cries:
"Sherlock H——. No; he's one of those newspaper guys."
I see a man sit in the seat of the great.
And they ask his advice upon matters of state.
"A diplomat, surely." But to my surprise
They tell me he's "one of those newspaper guys."
And some day I'll stand by the gates of gold,
And see a man pass through unquestioned and bold;
"A saint?" I'll ask, and St. Peter'll reply:
"No, he's only a plain, honest newspaper guy."

Yes, a kiss in the dark may be an electric spark.

Fine, only a month more until spring—by the calendar.

If you are astonished at the raise of the landlords, you will be astounded at the raise of the movers.

Funny, a woman never thinks of her husband as a gambler, unless he loses.

Casey says: "Sum wimmin do be vain widout bein' purty, but Oi never knew wan to be purty and not vain."

I've always noticed that the boasted self-made man is just about the kind of a job you might expect of him."

Something wrong, our streets were not cleaned before the aldermanic election—why?

If we could use some of the "presidential timber, now so plentiful, for the making of paper pulp, it might relieve the present shortage in print paper.

Of course I knew that George Washington was dead, but don't see why the telephone company should have their flag at half mast on his anniversary. What?

If I ever said anything disrespectful of the ground hog, I hereby apologize, he sure do know his business, the darned little cuss.

Some people who thought it ridiculous of the law to attempt to regulate a man's wages, think it would be all right to compel a landlord to take whatever the tenant sees fit to give him for rent.

Trying to put through a $20,000,000 bond issue on the fatal "little ballot" with but five days notice to the people who must pay them is a new record in high financing for the South Park Board.

That Hamilton Park janitor that imagined he owned the apartment building he was hired to care for, and stood off the police, was simply carrying out the usual theory of most janitors that they not only own the building but the tenants as well.

I am no apologist for President Wilson, but isn't it a beastly cruel thing for (mis) leading papers to discuss his physical condition as well as mental with the same spirit they would a convict, and rather gloat over his present infirmities? Looks like very dirty political work.

I don't want to be anyway personal, but we have a wonderful automatic lead and slug casting machine in the office that worked steadily until "Bill" Mac gave it a look and the machine stopped. The joke is that "Bill" prides himself on his good looks, even trying to compete with the beauty that heads this column.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Mr. Kirk D. Holland, gas engine expert of the Double Seal Ring Co., spoke on gas engineering as a life career to the boys of the Lindblom Hi-Y Club. The field of gas engineering is a most attractive one from both the scientific and commercial angle.

Rifle clubs have been organized among the fellows of the Englewood senior, Englewood junior, Parker and Lindblom Hi-Y clubs. The Englewood shooters spent Lincoln's birthday at Wolf Lake, Ind. The trip was most enjoyable but it was a bit too cold for fine target work.

Starting Sunday, February 29th for Four Days

The Great Masterpiece of the Hour

THE "Copperhead"

LIONEL BARRYMORE

As long as human emotion shall endure, no man, woman or child can look at "The Copperhead" and fail to feel its tender pathos, its vital appeal, its uplift of emotion. Such an entertainment as made audience after audience rise to its feet and cheer at the end of the stage play, and without exaggeration this picture contains as fine a piece of acting as ever was shown. Put on the screen superbly for all the world to see, to love, to cherish.

From the Great Play by August Thomas.

Great Crowds Wept and Cheered

When Lionel Barrymore stirred their souls with the unforgettable scenes of "The Copperhead" on the stage.

NOW IT IS ON THE SCREEN!

The story of a patriot who served in disgrace when he could have served with honor—gave more than life for those who called him traitor, for Lincoln who called him "friend."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kiesling, 6137 Troy st., welcomed a little daughter on Feb. 11th. She will be called Ruth. Mrs. Kiesling is a niece of Mrs. Bluethner of the Ridge.

The Men's Club of the Green st. church will hold its regular meeting at the church this (Friday) evening at 8 p. m. Attorney M. C. Harrison will speak on "The Committee of Forty-eight." All men invited.

A very complete line of blank books of all kinds, single leaf sheets and books, office supplies and stationery of all kinds at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd st. (Adv.)

We are promised a share in the big park bond levy, but promises are uncertain, but we would like to have the Marquette rd. boulevard finished from Morgan st. to Ashland ave., then Loomis blvd. from Marquette rd. to the south city limits, and we could stand a few more small parks.

Economy is a great thing. We know of a merchant who is growing a walrus mustache in hopes of having a discount made in his shaving bill. We do not like to be personal, but it is an upside down chap and the initials of his name are Emil Johnson.

Mrs. F. A. Bosworth, wife of the superintendent of the Englewood postoffice, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past six weeks, will leave for Florida, to be gone until April 1st.

It is proposed by the Chicago Boys' Club to erect a $15,000 gymnasium at once on the south end of the property they have bought at the southwest corner of 64th St. and Hermitage ave. A club house will be erected later on the corner. The lot is 75 by 125 feet and cost the club $7,900.

R. Robinson has bought the apartment building at 66th and Green sts. This was about the only way he could get by without an increase of rent, so he intends beating the landlord by being his own landlord, as he has lived in this apartment ever since it was built.

Mornington K. Wilson, for many years the leading candy maufacturer of Englewood, with stores at 6340 Halsted St., died at his home in Hollywood, Cal., Feb. 16th, while superintending his extensive oil interests in that locality. Mrs. Wilson and their son, Fred, started for California immediately and the funeral occurred in Hollywood Monday. Mrs. Wilson and Fred will return home as soon as they can arrange the business interests there.

Nothing will serve better to open our district south than to have the Loomis blvd. continued to the south city limits, or at least to Morgan Park, making one of the finest drives in the city. While the Hyde Park district is getting millions, we at least should get a share of the funds raised when 60 per cent of the taxes is paid by the property west of State st. as a dividing line.

Too Late for Publication

There is no use sending us "copy" later than Wednesday afternoon, as we cannot possibly publish it. Every week we are compelled to make this announcement, but some people seem to think we can accept "copy" up to Thursday and send it to us, and if not available for the next issue we must consign it to the waste paper basket.
